

Terms and Conditions

Security

Morgan City take Internet security very seriously. Our technology and policies are designed to make your online transactions safe, private, and secure. Rigorous policies and procedures are utilized to safeguard your personal information, such as social security numbers, banking information, and personal data.

We encourage all users to use strong passwords and change them regularly to minimize risk.

Morgan City works hard to protect your personal information while you do business with Morgan City.

Terms of Use

Information on Morgan City's Computer Systems is made available as a public service, without express or implied warranties of any kind, and is subject to the following disclaimers:

1. Accuracy, Changes, and Continuity of Service

Morgan City (City) tries to ensure that the information made available on its Web sites is accurate and complete. Due to factors beyond the control of the City, however, it cannot guarantee against unauthorized modifications of information or errors made in inputting and posting data. The City may make changes to a Web page at any time to update, add, or correct the information made available. The City may elect to charge a fee for accessing or using information from the City's computer system, or may suspend or discontinue making the information available.

2. No Warranties

The City disclaims any express or implied warranties related to making its computer system available for public use, and for any materials, information, graphics, products, or processes contained within its computer system. It makes no warranty, express or implied, nor assumes any responsibility for the use of information on the City's Web sites or computer system/s, or for the computer system's fitness for any general or particular purpose. Nor does the City warrant that the use of information on the City's system will not infringe or violate the rights of others. The public is granted access to information on the City's computer system on a strictly "as is" basis. The City denies responsibility for the conduct of its users.

3. Submissions

The City's Web site may invite users to submit content to the site that may be used on the web site. In these circumstances, the City invites users to submit content solely for the purpose of identifying content that the City can use to communicate the City's messages. The City is not a public forum and users should not expect that content submitted will be posted on the City's websites. If the City chooses to post any content, it does so solely at its own discretion and for the purpose of communicating the messages of Morgan City. The City exercises final approval authority over any content it chooses to post to its web sites and may remove submitted content at any time at its discretion.

While the City may choose to post submitted content for the purpose of communicating the City's messages, the City disclaims any responsibility for any information, materials, opinions, endorsements of products or services, or any other content located or made available on external sites.

4. External Links; Personal Opinions

The City may choose to provide hypertext or other links to non-City websites. As with circumstances where the City chooses to post content submitted by users, the City posts these links for the purpose of communicating the City's messages. If the City chooses to provide a link to any non-City website, it does so solely at its own discretion. The City is not a public forum and users submitting links to the City's website should not expect that any link submitted will be posted on the City's websites. The City exercises final approval authority over any links to non-City websites it chooses to post and may remove links at any time at its discretion. While the City may provide a link to these sites for its own purpose of communicating the City's messages, the City disclaims legal responsibility for any information, materials, opinions, endorsements of products or services, or any other content located or made available on external sites. No other sections of this disclaimer statement are applicable to external sites beyond the control of the City.

5. Copyright Limitations

The City has made the content of certain pages of its Web sites available to the public. Anyone may view, copy, or distribute information found within these web pages (not including the design or layout of the pages) for personal or informational use without owing an obligation to the City if the documents are not modified in any respect, and unless otherwise stated on the particular materials or information to which a restriction on free use applies. The City makes no warranty, however, that the materials contained within these pages are free from copyright claims, or other restrictions or limitations on free use or display. The City disclaims any liability for the improper or incorrect use of information obtained from its Web sites.

6. Assumption of Risk of Use

One who uses the information available for public use on the City's computer system assumes the risk of using or relying on such information. Neither the City, its employees, nor its agents shall be liable for any damages, including indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages a user incurs as a result of viewing, distributing, or copying materials on the sites made available to the public, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.

7. Monitoring and Protecting the System from Intrusion

All City computer systems are subject to monitoring to assure proper functioning of the system and to provide security for the computer system's operation. By using the computer systems you are consenting to the exercise of such monitoring practices. The City reserves the right to use any legally appropriate measures to prevent and investigate anyone attempting to modify, deface, delete, or otherwise tamper with or abuse a City Web site, server, database, information system, or other City technology asset.

8. Utah Law and Jurisdiction

The materials made available for public use on the City's Web sites are from computer systems located within the City, and are for the use and benefit of the citizens of Morgan City. Any person who uses these systems or attempts to gain access to information or materials on these systems is subject to the jurisdiction of the Morgan City. Any dispute arising from a person using or attempting to use information or materials on the City's Web sites shall be determined in accordance with Utah laws and in the courts of Utah.

9. Conditional Services Amendment to the Morgan City Disclaimer Statement

Certain services and features on the City's Internet sites are labeled as "conditional services." This signifies that the service or feature may be a pilot project or makes use of publicly available external Web services offered by governmental or commercial entities. These external resources are used to provide specific services to Morgan City Web users that the City is unable to offer/host/configure locally due to resource limitations. Some conditional services may require specific browser configurations (e.g., JavaScript-support, cookies, etc.) and are provided "as is" without support from the City. Conditional services offered on the City's website may be removed at any time without notice if the external service is determined to not meet the needs of the City. Use of a commercial Web service does not serve as an endorsement by Morgan City, nor is the City responsible for any data inaccuracies or omissions provided by external services.